Hi sage-conduct committee,
Will the committee be able to give me any indication how much longer I am expected to endure daily public denunciations and hostility by Pasechnik and others; or what purpose it serves to allow it?

Dear Matthias,

I'm just dropping a line quickly to let you know that you can expect several answers from the committee in the upcoming days.

Best regards,
Jean-Philippe

I have not received any meaningful response
- to this question from over 2 weeks ago;
- nor to my messages titled "How Sage development should proceed" (from Apr 23 -- a follow-up to the Zoom meeting with parts of the committee);
- nor to my response to "Sage Code of Conduct reply to 'Examples of 'acting offended'" (from May 4), in which I walked you through the characteristics of manipulation by example;
- nor to my reminder (from May 3) regarding the duty to correct publicly the damage that is done by the public actions of abusers.

Two specific questions that need an answer.

1. Is the declaration (from Nils' Apr 13 message) that Pasechnik's behavior does "not constitute systematic bullying and abuse" the position of the committee?
2. Does the committee consider that it has a duty to give support to targets of abuse in the community? I'll state that I do not feel to have received any such support. To the contrary, I feel systematically abandoned by the community and the committee.

I would suggest another Zoom meeting -- if there are any committee members who are interested in a constructive discussion.

Matthias
