Dear Matthias,

Due to your continued unwillingness to acknowledge the negative impact your behavior has had on the Sage community, and your lack of cooperation in resolving conflicts with other Sage developers, we are suspending your participation in the Sage project.

Specifically, we have

- Removed your account from the SageMath GitHub organization and blocked it
- Blocked your ability to post on all Sage-related Google groups.

This suspension is effective immediately, and will last for a minimum of one year. If, after this period, you wish to return to contributing to the project, you may request a review of this suspension by writing to the Code of Conduct Committee. At that time, you will need to demonstrate that you have made progress in addressing the concerns that we outlined in our previous communication and provide a plan for reconciling with the Sage developers with whom you have had conflicts over the past year.

We are saddened to take this action, as we recognize and value the many contributions you have made to the project over the years.

This is a unanimous decision by the Code of Conduct Committee, as with all previous decisions.
